

ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1. Underline the subject and encircle the predicates in the following sentences.
 - (i) Barking dogs don't always bite.
 - (ii) An owl can turn its head in a complete circle.
 - (iii) Most deaf people cannot hear.
 - (iv) He has written me a letter.
 - (v) Credit cards are very convenient.
2. Read the sentences given below and write 'S' for simple sentences and 'CS' for compound sentences.
 - (i) My computer is out of order.
 - (ii) The students won the match and the coach was happy.
 - (iii) The girl was missing her mother.
 - (iv) I saw him but I did not recognize him.
 - (v) Although he is poor yet he is honest.
3. Read the extracts given below and answer the questions that follow:
 - (a) I'd rather sleep in the ivy wall;
No rain comes through, tho' I hear it fall.
The sun peeps gay at dawn of day,
And I sing, and wing away, away!
 - (i) Who is 'I' in the above lines.
 - (ii) Who has written this poem 'Birdie, will you pet?'
 - (iii) Ivy is a plant. What does the bird want to convey by describing it as a wall?
 - (iv) What does the speaker prefer ivy wall to?
 - (v) What is the rhyming scheme of the poem?
4. Pick out five examples of alliteration from the poem 'Birdie, will you pet?'