

Every sentence is made up of two parts : i) subject ii) predicate.

Eg:- i)The girl sleeps.

ii) Few students failed.

In above sentences _ “The girl”, and “Few students”, are subjects.

A.Now pick out the Subjects and the Predicate in the following sentences:

1.India wants peace in the world.

2.She has four uncles.

3.The children like new clothes.

4.We are waiting for the mother.

5.Is Sharda a good dancer.

B) Supply the Subject in the following :

1._____rises in the East

2._____is a great wealth.

3._____falls into the Bay of Bengal.

4.-----worships the rising sun.

5.----- smells sweet. .

C) Supply the Predicate in the following:

1.The parents -----.

2. Practice -----.

3.A broken chair_____.

4.Some naughty girls_____

5.My younger brother_____.

D. Rearrange the following words so as to make sense:

1.Pays the run honesty in long

2.Mother is for looking your you?

3.A sweet song Madhuri sang.

4. At a straw catches a drowning man.

5.A fine dancer is blue eyed that girl.